"The Concrete Project epitomizes both the strengths and trappings of a hip-hop jam band. That is, they can sound aggressively raw and energetic with their live instruments." - Quan Vu, San Diego Rap Music Examiner

Nominated Best Hip Hop in 2009 at the San Diego Music Awards, The Concrete Project is a Hip Hop band that utilizes live instruments rather than the traditional tools of Hip Hop. Eddie's bass provides the funk slaps, Jen Mango's keys supplies the soul, Shaun Bro's guitar mixes in the rock, Cody throws in his jam band style drums while Caleb and Tory unify these elements with their feel good rhymes. Though it seems impossible to find an equilibrium amongst their many styles, Hip Hop band The Concrete Project has found common ground as hard as rock.

You can find The Concrete Project playing music venues that seat thousands to local bars that you can barely fit a VW Bug in; playing with world famous acts such as De La Soul, Souls of Mischief, Onyx and Fishbone or sharing the stage with local up and comers. The Concrete Project understands that music doesn't set boundaries so they follow suit and let the music travel wherever it pleases.
